

Completion Progress Block

The Completion Progress block is a time-management tool for instructors and learners. It features visual representation of activities to be completed by the learner, and is colour-coded for quick reference. Instructors can use the colour codes and the numerical percentage displayed to identify student progress and at-risk students. If individual bars are rolled over, the name of the activity and the learner's status are displayed.

In order to use the Completion Progress block, Completion Tracking must be active for course resources and activities that are to be included in the Completion Progress block. As many activities and Resources arrive with Completion Tracking on, there may be a need to clean up the completion progress display, by selecting the Activities included option and choosing the appropriate activities and resources in the Selected activities drop-down. (See step 11 in the Configuring the Completion Progress Block section below.

Setting up and Using Completion Tracking

See the Support document on LearnIT2teach or the Support document on Stage 3.

Adding a Completion Progress Block

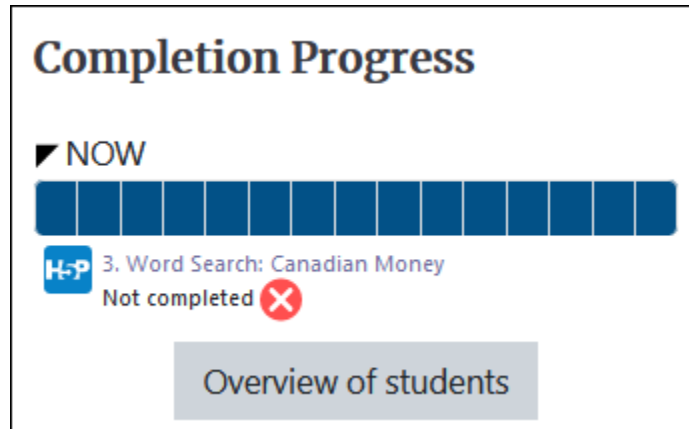

1. Go to the course main page.
2. Click on the Turn editing on button.
3. In the Navigation Drawer, click on the Add a block link.
4. In the pop-up, choose the Completion Progress option.

A blue rectangular button with the text "Turn editing on" in white.

Note: The Completion Progress block appears. In most cases it will appear with dozens of coloured blocks. To ensure a more useful layout, go to step 11 in the Configuring the Completion Progress Block section below to select appropriate activities and resources for your purposes.

Note: A more manageable Completion Progress block would appear similar to this.

Configuring the Completion Progress Block

1. Ensure that course editing is ON.
2. In the Completion Progress block, click on the Action menu icon.

3. Click on the link Configure Completion Progress block link.

4. In the Block Settings section, choose either Time using “Expect completed on” date or Ordering in course.

5. Choose an option in the How to present long bars drop-down menu.

Squeeze compresses all bar elements into the Completion Progress block's width.

Scroll allows users to scroll using the arrow icon to view additional elements.

Wrap shows the bar elements on multiple lines. The NOW indicator does not appear.

6. Choose either Yes or No, in the Use icons in bar setting. Icons assist with accessibility.

7. Choose Yes or No in the Show percentage to student drop-down menu.

Note: The percentage indicates what percent of the course activities and resources in this Completion Progress block are finished.

8. Click on the Show more... link.

Show more...

9. In the Visible only to group or grouping drop-down, choose either All participants, or a group or grouping name.

Note: Only the group or grouping selected will see the Completion Progress block.

10. Type a name for a Completion Progress block in the Alternate title field if there will be more than one Completion Progress block on the course.

Note: This will allow the learners to know what the purpose of each Completion Progress block is. For example, one may be for activities and another may be to track resources, or a block could be used to track speaking tasks only.

11. In the Activities included drop-down, choose either All activities with completion set or Selected activities.

13. Click on the Save Changes button.

Note: The Completion Progress bar is easier to view as it is focused.

14. Click on the Turn Editing off button.

Viewing student progress

1. Click on the Overview of students button in a Completion Progress block.

Note: A class list appears.

Course participants' names appear in rows. The last course access appears in the second column. In the column Completion Progress, a bar with a square or rectangle representing each activity appears. Normally, these will all appear as blue as the Completion Progress block is normally set up at the onset of a term.

2. Rolling the mouse over each coloured rectangle in the Completion Progress column reveals progress
Note: The colour codes are detailed in this table.

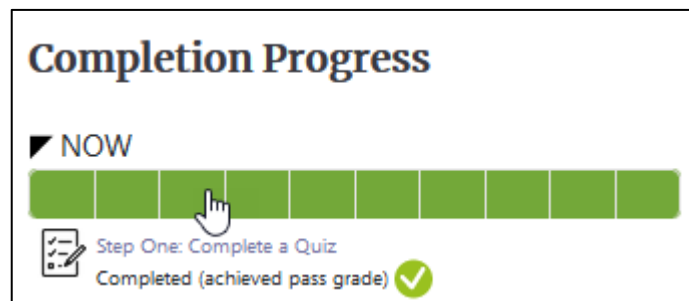

Colour	Description
red	Did not pass
blue	Not completed (not started)
green	Passing grade
yellow	Submitted but not graded

3. Instructors can view individuals sorted by Progress, Last appearance in course or by student Surname or First name by clicking on the column headings.
4. Instructors can also view progress by Visible groups in a course by choosing a group from the Visible groups drop-down list.

Students Using the Completion Progress Block

1. If the instructor has added the Completion Progress block, it will appear on the main course page.
2. If the learners roll their mouse over the bars, they can see their status on different activities.

3. If the learners click on the coloured boxes, they are taken to the activity or resource.
