

Before downloading a SCORM object, instructors can use Tutela's preview option to view the contents of a SCORM. This feature allows instructors to decide if a resource on the Tutela site is suitable for their learners to avoid downloading and adding an unsuitable item to their courseware.

Previewing a SCORM Object on Tutela

After using Tutela's search function, a list of all available SCORM resources should appear.

1. Click the title or the View button for one of the resources to display more information and options about the item, such as previewing, downloading and rating/commenting.

The screenshot shows a SCORM resource card for "Flu Shots". On the left is an orange circular icon with a white document symbol. To its right is the title "Flu Shots" in orange, with a red arrow pointing to it. Further right is the date and time "Nov 29, 2017 02:15 AM EST". Below the title is the author "Author: New Media Language Training, Inc." and a description: "Students read two short texts about the flu, and then they answer comprehension questions. Students listen to a dialogue between a doctor and a patient about flu shots, and then they answer true or...". On the bottom left are two icons: a thumbs up with "1" and a speech bubble with "1". On the bottom right is an orange "View" button with a red arrow pointing to it.

2. Click the button that says Click to view interactive SCORM learning object.

A panel opens displaying the contents of the SCORM object. Use the menu on the left side to navigate to the various pages in the SCORM.

3. Click the close icon "X" in the lower right corner of the preview pane to exit and return to Tutela.
